MAJESTIC AND FARREL
LAKE NEWS

Have you ever tested and gazed at Richardson's, registered gold and jewelry, Delia—adv.

A concert and dance will be given by the Delta Golf Club in the Empire Theatre on Friday, March 8th.

Dave Smith, formerly of the Bank of Commerce staff here, left Wednesday for Delia, to be gifted with a new home transferred—Drumheller Review.

On Friday, March 24, a whist drive and dance will be held at Sentinel Hill Schoolhouse. Music furnished by Victor Orchestra. See
adv. in another column.

A daylight dance and box social will be held at Springwater School March 10th. Dancing to start at 1:30 p.m. until 12 o'clock p.m.
Refreshments come and have a good time.

Attention is given to an advt. in another column of list of meetings of the United Farmers of Alberta, to be held during this month in the interest of the U.F.A. and the people. The meeting at Spring Hill School will be held on Tuesday, March 22nd, instead of the 21st.
The meetings at Amberg and Saskatoon have been cancelled.

In the local spring banding, held this week, Ed. Bigelow's rink prevailed, defeating F. J. Stewart by one point in the fourth end. A. S. Stenstrom took place and W. B. Dunlop fourth. In the second, or "Magic" competition, C. J. Bickert defeated J. F. Fairburn, with Thompson and Lumsden third and fourth, respectively. In the consolation event, Howe lost to Walker.

Shortly before 6:30 on Tuesday night, a fire broke out in the back of the F. A. Stewart's garage.
When the local fire brigade learned of and reached the scene of action, it was found that children had been sleeping with the gas leak of a tractor sitting at the back of F. A.
Stewart's garage, and gas escaping from the tractor had caused the premises of the firemen soon extinguished the blaze.

The young people's society of the United Church held their social evening on Tuesday night of this week. Gathering at the Church in goodly numbers with their sleas, they liked to Burke's Lake and spent an enjoyable hour sliding down the steep banks and across the lake. Afterwards they returned to the Church where hot cocoa, refreshments and cake proved very refreshing.

The Board of Managers of the United Church held last Tuesday and decided to hold the Anniversary Services on March 25th, and the Anniversary Dinner on the 26th.
It was decided, too, that a special preacher be brought in for the occasion. Dr. Kydd was appointed to represent the U.C.A.
The Rev. Mr. Bishop, chairman, and Mr. J. K. C. secretary.
